Our Goals and Objectives

Downtown Muskogee, Inc. (DMI) as a non-profit organization will focus its energies and resources on revitalizing the downtown district. Some of the goals Downtown Muskogee, Inc. has envisioned for the revitalization of the downtown district are:

- To make it strong and economically viable for new and existing businesses
- To preserve and restore the historic properties in the downtown district
- To bring in new businesses to keep a strong product mix
- To assist merchants with business plans and building owners with facade renovations
- To promote the rich history and multi-culturalism of Muskogee
- To make the downtown district a destination for tourists and locals
- To develop a long-range, comprehensive plan to achieve the above goals
